We require the following in order to issue the documents for a student to obtain the student visa:

1. The completed Application Form and one photograph.
2. A copy of the student's school records.
3. An address where the student will be living in the United States, and the approximate date of arrival.
4. A bank money order in the full amount, as per the schedule listed.

All students must provide immunization and health records upon their first arrival at The Windsor School.

In the event the student visa is denied, a full refund, less $100.00, will be made upon presentation of the official government denial. If a student visa is approved to attend school in the United States, no refund will be made.

Complete this form and send to The Windsor School.
